Growing up in a region where access to books and educational resources was scarce, Soriano recognized early on the importance of literacy and the barriers faced by children and adults alike. In the late 1990s, Soriano noticed a profound gap: many children in his community had little exposure to reading materials, and traditional school supplies were often insufficient. Determined to make a difference, he envisioned a way to bring books directly to the children—no matter how remote their homes or villages. The challenge was significant: mountainous terrains, poor infrastructure, and limited transportation options made traditional library services impossible. Yet Soriano's solution was both simple and innovative—using his two beloved donkeys, Biblio and Burro, to create a mobile library that could traverse the rugged landscape. --- The Concept: Books on Donkeys — The Birth of Biblioburro The idea of a "library on donkeys" might sound whimsical, but it was grounded in practicality and a deep understanding of local conditions.
